

Mother: Maybe, it did not. But, it wanted to be safe.
Now, I am going to tell you three rules to keep yourself safe.

Janani: Okay, Mom.

Mother: There are body parts that you and others can see and touch like our arms and hands.

But, there are also some body parts that no one should see or touch like our chest, between our legs and our bottom. These parts are called private parts. What are they called?

Janani: _____.

Mother: So now, let me tell you the rule number 1. It is never right for anyone to look at, touch or talk about your private parts. And it is never right for someone older than you to ask you to look, touch or talk about their private parts.

Janani: But mom, don't you give me bath daily?

Mother: Very good question! Who else knows that I give you a bath?

Janani: Dad, Grandpa, Grandma and Jagan know that you give me bath.

Mother: Correct, when we are small our mom or dad might touch us to help us to be clean. It is never a secret and it is okay to tell someone about it.

Janani: I got it mom. It is never right for anyone to _____, _____ or _____ about my private parts. But, it is never a _____.

Mother: Very good! Some touches are good or safe, like when we shake hands. But, some touches are bad or unsafe, like when we hit someone. Can we hit someone?

Janani: _____.
