LET US KNOW

The Indian Penal Code 1860, punishes people who involve in child trafficking. There is also The Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, that prevents child marriages.

The Ministry of Women and Child Development has placed the draft National Policy on Child Protection. It aims at providing a safe environment for all children.

Father: If you are ever touched on any of these parts of your body by someone you know or someone in the family, then you must inform your teacher or another family member.

Son and Daughter : Sure, Dad. We will definitely inform if something like this happens. Thank you for talking to us about this.

Father: Don't thank me because it is every parents' and teachers' duty to talk to children about this. It will help you be safe and happy.
